

By commissioning me, you are automatically agreeing to these terms.

▸ || General || ▸

I have the right to decline a commission for any reason.
If you are unsure if your commission is acceptable, feel free to message me and ask.

I will not draw:

- ◆ detailed mecha
- ◆ NSFW (kissing and suggestive is okay)
 - ◆ fetish art
- ◆ emulating another artist's style
- ◆ anything involving racism, homophobia, incest, etc.

▸ || Payment Information || ▸

Do not send the payment until I have accepted your commission.
I accept Paypal (USD) and DeviantArt points. Mixed payments are accepted as well.

Payment will be upfront for orders under $30. A fifty-fifty payment plan can be arranged for orders above that number, where the first payment will be made at the start and the second payment will be sent upon completion. The art will not be given until I am paid in full.

▸ || Cancellation & Refund || ▸

If I must cancel your commission for any reason, you will be given a full refund.

If a month has gone by and you have still not received your commission, you can request a refund. You will be refunded based on how far in the process I am. For example, if I have only done the sketch, I will charge you for the sketch and refund the rest.

I will not accept a refund after the commission is finished.

▸ || Edits + WIPs || ▸

Art will be finished within a month normally, however it may be shorter or longer depending on current circumstances (school, work, your place in line, etc.).

I will keep you updated during the process and notify you beforehand if I foresee any delay in completing your commission.

WIPs will be given on request, however, you will be only allowed minor edits (unless it was a mistake on my part and not from miscommunication). Examples of minor edits include: changing eye color, adding an accessory, tweaking the anatomy slightly, etc. Major edits may only occur during the first WIP stage. Any major edit after that will cost extra.

A major edit, which involves me completely redoing a part of the art, will cost something depending on the complexity of the edit. Examples of major edits include: completely changing the character's outfit, removing/adding large parts of their design, changing the lighting/scene, changing a pose etc.

▸ || Copyright & Usage || ▸

I will not post the art on my social media by request, however I retain all rights over my work, which include but are not limited to; uploading the artwork to social media, using my artwork for self-promotion, and using the artwork for other personal means.

You may use and post my art anywhere, as long as you do not claim you drew it or resell my art. The reselling rule doesn't apply if you are selling the character depicted and are including the drawing in the sale.

If you would like to sell the art commercially (such as printing it on shirts or stickers, etc, and selling them), you will need to pay double the total commission price on top of the regular commission. (ex. if the commission was $30, then you would have to pay $90 in order to use it commercially).
